Biographical notes

[21-01-1977/2-5-1978 INI's Chairman]

A graduate in Law

His chairmanship was characterized by the continuity with those of his predecessors. In his inaugural speech, he praised the strategic role played by the state-owned companies and the profitability of INI's companies, and he stated that the Instituto had to carry out productive investments, but always prioritizing the social over the financial goals. The incorporation of the companies Astilleros Cartagena, SODICAN, SODIEX, SODIAN took place.
